Club liability and membership terms. Please tick the boxes to confirm:

I understand that the rowing and handling of club equipment is physically demanding, and that:

- It is entirely my responsibility to ensure that when participating in club rowing and boat handling activities I am fit and able to do so.
- I do not suffer from any medical condition that may be affected by rowing or boat handling activities. I will consult my GP if I have any doubts or concerns. Please complete the medical declaration over the page.
- I can swim, or if I am a non-swimmer it is my responsibility to ensure I wear a life jacket at all times when in a club boat.

I understand that members, their guests and visitors use the club's facilities at their own risk and explicitly that:

- The club will not be held liable for any damage to or loss of property belonging to the members, their guests or visitors to the club.
- The club will not be held liable for personal injury arising out of the use of Club facilities, or out of participation in any race or other activities organised by the club, whether sustained by members, their guests, or visitors, or caused by the said members, guests or visitors, whether or not such damage or injury could have been attributed to or was occasioned by neglect, defaults or negligence of any of the officers, committee or servants of the club.

- Parents and guardians of junior members (17 years and under) have full responsibility for their children and wards and they must appreciate that the club cannot be expected to exercise supervision or control. All those aged 16 and under must wear a life jacket on the water.
- GDPR statement: The club uses an email system to keep in touch with members about club matters and therefore needs to hold members' emails to allow us to communicate with you. We use the Google group email system for most communications: at the foot of each email you receive there is an opt-out option which you can use if you no longer wish to receive emails from the club. We also hold data on members' basic fitness to ensure that training can be provided in accordance with individual health requirements. In addition, for those members aiming to become part of race crews, we also collate details of objective fitness measurements which are used to inform decisions on crew selection. We hold telephone numbers so that we can contact members at short notice should weather or other circumstances interfere with planned training sessions. We also hold postal addresses should we need to communicate with members by post (sometime required by law as we are a registered charity). We will not at any time share this data with any third parties and have protection in place to ensure that data cannot be accessed without permission. We will not at any time share this data with any third parties and have protection in place to ensure that data cannot be accessed without permission. Please indicate your acceptance of these uses of your personal data by ticking this box.
- Membership renewals are due by 1 July of each membership year, with the membership year running 1 July – 30 June.

Social media usage and responsibility:

- The club will not tolerate any abuse or misuse of internet social media platforms such as Facebook; Twitter; Instagram and others. Any posts, comments or images deemed to be irresponsible, derogatory, disrespectful or abusive towards any member past or present or the club itself will be considered as bringing the club into disrepute and are likely to result in immediate cancellation of membership.

DECLARATION

I confirm that I have read and understood the above rules, and that I have answered all questions honestly and to the best of my ability. I also acknowledge that it is my responsibility to inform the Membership Secretary of any changes in my circumstances or details.

You/Your family members' declaration of suitability for gig rowing.

It is your responsibility to declare a known disability or medical condition. FMPGC takes no responsibility for any outcomes caused by members knowingly not declaring any disability or medical condition.

Regular physical activity is fun and healthy, and being more active is very safe for most adults. However, some members should check with their GP before they start becoming much more physically active. FMPGC accepts no liability for persons who undertake physical activity. If in doubt consult your GP prior to physical activity.

	Yes	No
1. Has your GP ever said that you have a heart condition and that you should only do physical activity recommended by him/her?
2. Do you feel pain in your chest when you do physical activity?
3. In the past month, have you had chest pain when you were not performing physical activity?
4. Do you lose your balance because of dizziness or do you ever lose consciousness?
5. Do you have a bone or joint problem that could be made worse by a change in your physical activity? Please list the bone/joint problem here:
6. Is your GP currently prescribing drugs (for example, water pill) for your blood pressure or heart condition?
7. Do you know of any other reason why you shouldn't exercise? List here:

If you answered YES to one or more questions visit or speak with your GP prior to commencing water sport lessons.

If you answered NO honestly to all questions you can be reasonably sure that you can start rowing. However, if you start to feel unwell tell your coxswain immediately.
